

Safehaven

Exceptional Lives. Exceptional Care.

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Employees
FROM: Susan Bisailon, CEO
DATE: April 20, 2020
SUBJECT: Safehaven Care Corner for Clients

We have fielded many employee requests for a larger supply of activities to share with our clients. With the spring weather beckoning, and social distancing requiring us to keep busy indoors, we have looked for more creative options and recommend the following links. These were sourced from a reliable educator and home schooler. They are free and easy to access; please enjoy and feel free to share with the exceptional people here and at home:

1. Canadian site Farm Food 360 offers 11 virtual tours of farms from pigs, cows, apples, eggs etc. Click here to take a tour and learn about the farm!
2. The San Diego Zoo has a website just for kids with amazing videos, activities and games. Enjoy a fun-filled educational tour by clicking here!
3. Click here to access 300,000 free printable worksheets to test anyone from toddlers to teens
4. Are you looking for creative ways to entertain the right side of the brain? Click here for crafts, activities, mazes, connect the dots, etc.?
5. Read, play games, and hang out with Dr. Seuss and characters. Oh the places you'll go by clicking here!
6. In search of fun games, and recipes to pass the time? Click here for a fun to-do list!
7. Who said learning can't be fun? Click here to access educational games, levelled from Kindergarten to Grade 12!
8. Music is for everyone, click here to string together some digital tunes and jam out!

We intend to circulate more resources like this as frequently as we are able so please share your feedback and continued ideas. Thank you to each of you for your continued commitment to our clients at this time, we hope this list helps drive creativity and engagement in each home.

Stay safe and enjoy,
